

Astreya Program and Project Management Services.

Leverage agile and value driven program and project management

Astreya leverages industry standard project and program management methodologies to deliver successful projects and programs. We help you identify the most important project outcomes, build project plans, develop timelines, build metrics to track performance, and apply the appropriate project governance and operational cadence to ensure success.

Our solution offers important services:

---

Project planning, deployment, and operation

---

Project review and recovery

---

---

Project portfolio management

---

Various project management methodologies

---

---

Service onboarding, transition, and delivery

---